Editor's Corner
Expert systems: failure or success?
R.L. Glass 1

A criticism on the capture-and-recapture method for software reliability assurance
S. Isoda 3

Reverse engineering of software threads: A design recovery technique for large multi-process systems
N. Wilde, C. Casey, J. Vandeville, G. Trio and D. Hotz 11

How well do experienced software developers predict software change?
M. Lindvall and K. Sandahl 19

A study of atomic action schemes intended for standard Ada
A. Romanovsky 29

Exploiting and-or parallelism in Prolog: The OASys computational model and abstract architecture
I. Vlahavas 45

An assessment of systems and software engineering scholars and institutions (1993–1997)
R.L. Glass 59

Editorial
Anecdote corner
R.L. Glass 65

A narrative history and description of MOSIS software
R. Ayres 67

Editorial
Editor's corner: A success/failure story
R.L. Glass 83

A case study of evolution in object oriented and heterogeneous architectures
V. Rajlich and S. Ragunathan 85

Tarilan: an embedded functional data processing language
K. De Bosschere 93

Human–computer interaction: Interdisciplinary roots and trends
H. Rex Hartson 103

F-metric: a WWW-based framework for intelligent formulation and analysis of metric queries
C.L. Chee, S. Jarzabek and R. Paul 119

Comparative study and categorization of high-level petri nets
V.C. Gerogiannis, A.D. Kameas and P.E. Pintelas 133

Editor's Corner
Cleaning up the trash after Y2K gets "solved"
Robert L. Glass 161

User cognitive representations: The case for an object oriented model
R. Krovi and A. Chandra 165

Combining OMT with a prototyping approach
W. Hasselbring and A. Kröber 177

The ProSet-Linda approach to prototyping parallel systems
W. Hasselbring 187

On heuristics for optimal configuration of hierarchical distributed monitoring systems
J. Cao, K. Zhang and O. de Vel 197

A taxonomy of distributed termination detection algorithms
J. Matocha and T. Camp 207

On using similarity for concurrency control in real-time database systems
K. Lam and W. Yau 223

An effective model for composition of secure systems
Q. Shi and N. Zhang 233
